SUNDAY 14

“Praise the Lord, O my soul; all my inmost being, praise his holy name...and forget not all his benefits” (Psalm 103). As you rest in God today, give him thanks and praise for all that he blesses you with. Allow your spirit to cry out to God for family and friends who do not yet know his love.

MONDAY 15

During this half-term break, let's pray for our school communities: for leadership to be inspired, staff to be refreshed, pupils to be protected and kept safe, and for parents to have quality time with their children. Let us pray for God's kingdom to come in our schools.

TUESDAY 16

Let's pray for the law courts in Banbury and Oxford and for all those who are tasked with upholding justice. Pray too for jurors in the position of responsibility that they find themselves. Pray for Sara T in her work as a solicitor.

WEDNESDAY 17

Pray that as we gather as a church to pray this evening that we would be in harmony with Christ with one another so that our prayers are effective. May we learn to pray so that God can work and not hinder him in all that he wants to do on earth.

THURSDAY 18

Harriet D

Let's continue to pray for one another as we follow the Bible Course through Lent. May we each be inspired by holy Scripture and come to know Christ better as a result.

FRIDAY 19

God wants all men to be saved and come to a knowledge of the truth. Pray today for all we meet on our frontlines; show us how we can bless them and pray too for opportunities to gently explore their beliefs with them.

SATURDAY 20

As we reflect on another week, read Psalm 103 and pray the verses that resonate with you. Let us desire to be all that God wants us to be so that He can do through us all that He wants to do for His glory.
